

CHAT ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONS FOR CHILDREN

These questions are to be asked of one another in a weekly meeting of accountability (Proverbs 27:17). They are to stimulate conversations of character and confession of sin to God and one another in a safe environment which values honesty, vulnerability, confidentiality, and grace.

How did what you learned from last week's reading shaped the way you think and live?

Who did you tell about what you learned last week and what did they say?

How have you seen God at work?

How have your actions and words shown others that you love Jesus?

How have you been respectful to your parents and the adults around you this week?

How have you loved and encouraged others even when you didn't feel like it?

How have you seen God answer your prayers this past week?

Have you hurt someone's reputation or feelings by your words?

Have you been dishonest in word or action or exaggerated?

In what ways have you been angry or frustrated when you didn't get something you wanted or didn't get your way?

Have you failed to forgive someone?

In what ways have you taken or wished for something that didn't belong to you?

In what ways have you been mean to others?

In what ways have you not done what you were supposed to do?

How have you taken opportunities to serve or bless others?

Have you finished your Bible reading? What did you learn?
